General

1. For languages which use Latin script:
 - a. Keep the names Cincinnati Children's, Cincinnati Children's Hospital, Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center, and GetWellNetwork in English.
 - i. If space permits, replace CCHMC with Cincinnati Children's. Otherwise leave it as CCHMC.
 - b. On first mention, medication names and Cincinnati Children's departments and divisions are translated, followed by the English name in parentheses. Subsequent mentions use the translation only.
 - c. Translate campus names, e.g. Main Campus and Liberty Campus. Note that many campus names, e.g. Burnet in Burnet Campus, Mason in Mason Campus, Liberty in Liberty Campus, College Hill in College Hill Campus, and Oak in Oak Campus, refer to neighborhoods or streets and therefore should remain as-is.
2. For languages which do not use Latin script:
 - a. On first mention, medication names, Cincinnati Children's, Cincinnati Children's Hospital, Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center, GetWellNetwork, departments, divisions, and campus names are translated, followed by the English name in parentheses. Subsequent mentions use the translation only.
 - i. Note that many campus names, e.g. Burnet in Burnet Campus, Mason in Mason Campus, Liberty in Liberty Campus, College Hill in College Hill Campus, and Oak in Oak Campus, refer to neighborhoods or streets and therefore should be transliterated, not translated.
 - ii. If space permits, replace CCHMC with the translation of Cincinnati Children's. Otherwise leave it in English.
3. Location letters (e.g. D in Location D), building names, and addresses in the United States remain in English.
 - a. Many Cincinnati Children's buildings are named with letters such as Location D. Specific floors in those buildings are referred to with the building letter and floor number, e.g. D2.

4. For all HIM and HIC barcoded documents (Note: the barcode in the footer is not usually displayed in Word. Instead, something like DIM1234 is displayed.):
 - a. Make the titles bilingual.
 - b. Add THE ENGLISH VERSION OF THIS DOCUMENT IS FOR REFERENCE PURPOSES AND MUST BE INCLUDED IN THE MEDICAL RECORD above the header on the first page in English only, centered, 8 pt. Times New Roman, regular.
 - c. Add the ISO 639-1 Code of the target language after the form ID in the left side of the footer, e.g. J1194-AR for the Arabic translation of form J1194.
 - d. Ensure the HIC date below the form ID matches the source document, even when using a template with a different date.
5. Ensure no essential elements are closer than one quarter inch to the edge of the page.
6. Whenever a form has a signature line labeled Witness, make that label and any additional corresponding labels (e.g. Date) bilingual. Witnesses usually only speak English but are often asked to sign translated forms to indicate they were present when the form was signed by a limited English proficient person.
7. Always translate text embedded in images. This may be done by overlaying text boxes or editing the image in Photoshop. When this cannot be done cleanly, contact the project manager for further instructions.
8. Dates: In English source documents, dates will likely be written month/day/year. In translations, when not limited by space, spell out the month, e.g. August 7, 2015 instead of 8/7/2015 or 7/8/2015. Do not write August/7/2015 or 7/August/2015. When limited by space, use the ISO 8601 date format: year (four digits), month (two digits) and day (two digits), e.g. 2015-08-07.
9. Whenever something isn't clear, or sounds potentially inappropriate when translated, ask for clarification.
10. When translating Knowing Notes:
 - a. Keep the following elements of footer in English: number (e.g. KN0123), copyright notice (e.g. ©2016 Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center) and revision date (e.g. 01/16).
 - b. When the logo indicates the Knowing Note is for Home Care, add the title in English to the header of the translation on all pages, right justified (left justified for right-to-left languages), 8 pt. Arial, regular.
11. When translating Health Topics (Health Topics usually include HT in the file name. If you are unsure if a document is a Health Topic or not, ask.):
 - a. Add Health Topic: Title - Language in English to the footer of the translation, right justified (left justified for right-to-left languages), 8 pt. Arial, regular, e.g. Health Topic: Hearing Loss - Spanish.
 - b. Keep the revision date exactly as it is written in English, i.e. month/year.

12. For translations into English, add Translated by Cincinnati Children's to the footer of the translation, right justified, 8 pt. Arial, regular.
13. For citations on References pages at the end of documents, keep everything as-is, but add a translation of the title in [brackets] after the English title.
14. Leave sections labeled For office use only in English. Make the label For office use only bilingual.
15. Only convert measurements when they are used as approximations in prose, e.g. “ten feet away,” “a couple miles,” “a few pounds,” etc.
16. When clearly referring to a location, translate Base as Main Campus.
17. Except the main Cincinnati Children's page www.cincinnatichildrens.org, check all URLs to see if they are available in the target language. If yes, use the appropriate URL for the target language. If no, add (only available in English) after the URL. For example, add the translation of (only available in English) after www.cincinnatichildrens.org/experiencesurvey since that page is not available in any other languages.
18. Do not translate Cincinnati Children's letterhead.
19. Do not translate text which is not in the source language, e.g. Arabic text in the source document of an English-to-Spanish translation.
